KHMER

Candidates Luke and Rachel have begun their journey towards joining the team serving among the Khmer in Cambodia. When in Cambodia, Luke will take on the role of team leader for the growing team. Over the past months, they have been involved in various training courses designed to help them prepare well for cross-cultural mission. Over the coming months, they will continue to invite people and churches to partner with them prayerfully and financially.

For Prayer:

- God would be preparing the hearts of the Khmer to hear and accept the message of Jesus
- Luke and Rachel would be content to rely on God's faithfulness, provision and timing
- Candidates preparing for Cambodia to build their partnership teams so they can join the team serving among the Khmer

S.I PEOPLE

Dave and Caz have been reflecting on the idea that through the way they speak and act, people are 'reading' about Jesus. Their prayer is that as their local friends 'read' about Jesus through them, they will grow in their desire to know more about Him. The past months have brought a dramatic increase in the number of new students at the Education Foundation and this has led to the appointment of new local staff. These increases mean the team has the opportunity to connect with more local people. Encouragingly, as well as weekly staff devotions, there are also a few groups of local people who regularly meet up to learn from the Bible.

For Prayer:

- Local staff member and believer, Mrs R, is facing challenges at home as she tries to live out her new faith. Pray her husband, Mr A, also comes to know Jesus.
- Local people 'reading' about Jesus through the team will be increasingly open to conversations about the Good News
- Caz's work visa will be renewed without delay

B PEOPLE

Along with local staff of our partner NGO, Phil is developing better ways to measure the ways people's lives have been changed through being involved in projects. He is investigating whether a new computer program, designed to make collecting and collating information simpler, will be suitable for their purposes. He recently completed another Masters subject which focused on the complex issues related to humanitarian aid in disaster situations. This is extremely relevant to his work and the NGO's support of families affected by the recent severe flooding in the area.

For Prayer:

- Visas to be received quickly for local staff planning to visit Australia this week to promote their work and ministry
- Clarity and wisdom as Phil and local staff seek to better measure outcomes and effectiveness of projects

YAWO

Jonno was recently reminded of the absolute importance of empowering communities to develop their own distinctive ways of following Jesus when he spoke with a Yawo man who had become a follower of Jesus decades previously. This man said that there was no way for him to be a believer in his village, he had needed to move to the city. As this man saw it, the Gospel couldn't fit into a Yawo village context. This is why Jonno, Heather and the rest of the team serving in Malawi and Mozambique are so excited to see that Yawo people are finding a way to faithfully follow Jesus and remain within their villages and communities.

For Prayer:

- Sensitivity to God's Spirit as Yawo believers discern how to follow Jesus without rejecting their culture and community
- Wisdom for the team as they journey with Yawo believers and seekers
- Team retreat in November to be a wonderful time of unity and spiritual insight
